| 102-11 | Precautionary Principle or approach | We constantly carry out impact studies in all our operations in order to understand and analyze the risks and opportunities that we may face. In addition, as part of our reporting effort under the methodology of the Global Reporting initiative, using the G4 version of its protocol, in 2015 we conducted a materiality study that included a thorough analysis of the opinions and concerns of our stakeholders about our sustainable performance. The results of this study helped us focus our actions in social responsibility during 2018. We have also started aligning our actions and initiatives to the UN's Sustainable Development Goals. | Relations with shareholders; Responsibility on materials | | Fully |
| 102-12 | External initiatives | In 2018 we subscribed to several external initiatives in favor of social responsibility, in order to expand our efforts in this area.
